

A+D 2008

Transfer Admissions Schedule

All Studio-Based B.F.A. Programs

To insure full consideration of your application, please read this schedule carefully.

Transfer applications must be postmarked by March 1, 2008.

Applicants seeking admission to the studio-based programs in the School of Art + Design are required to participate in a two-stage admissions process consisting of 1) a Portfolio Review and 2) an Interview or other follow up procedure.

The 2008 Admissions Process will be conducted according to the following schedule:

March 1, 2008

Portfolios must be postmarked by March 1, 2008 and sent to the School of Art+Design. See the Portfolio Submission form for address.

Tuesday, March 25 to Friday, March 28

Programs Review Portfolios

Friday, March 28

Receive Review Results

The results of the Portfolio Review will be sent by email directly to each applicant.

Applicants whose portfolios receive a positive review from one or more programs may be required to participate in an interview or follow up procedure with faculty panels from the respective programs. Specific information will be included in the Portfolio Review results email from the School of Art+Design admissions office.

Monday, March 31 to Thursday, April 3

Interviews and Appointments

Final Results

The UIUC Office of Admissions and Records will notify all applicants of their degree application status, following the evaluation of all transcripts, application requirements, and the portfolio and interview results. All offers for a place in the School of Art + Design depend on you meeting the University's entrance requirements along with a positive assessment of your portfolio.

Inquiries regarding your admissions status should be directed to the Office of Admissions and Records. The School of Art + Design will not be able to respond to admissions status questions.